Re: Acknowledgment of Ownership and Consent for Publication

This summary is to provide you with the background information and necessary documentation for your written work to be considered for publication in an upcoming book in the Reflections from Women series. It also includes some important points for you to consider as you determine if this is the right publication for you.

If your submitted work is accepted for publication in this anthology, it will appear in the book with a diverse collection of other essays and poems on the same theme also written by women.

The completed book will be approximately 250 pages. It will be published and marketed as a trade book by Sugati Publications. The final title and publication date of the book will be announced after all of the essays have been selected and confirmed. Keep in mind, the publication process can take up to a year from start to finish.

Sugati Publications requests nonexclusive world rights in all languages and for all future editions of the book. We will give credit for your work as the author as directed by you. If you prefer for your work to be published anonymously or with a pseudonym, please indicate as such on the consent form. Even if you want your work to be published without attribution of your name, you will still need to sign the consent form authorizing Sugati Publications to publish your work, thereby transferring ownership and copyright to Sugati Publications. We cannot publish your essay or poem without copyright privileges. However, as the author, you can reprint your work in any form (electronic or written) with proper citation to the book in which it is published.

The editor and publisher reserve the right to reject any submissions and to edit the stories for grammar, flow and space. We will not edit your writing style since we want the essays and poems to reflect the authors' voices. You will have the opportunity to review, to approve or to disapprove any edits prior to publication. Your input on the final product is very important to us.

After carefully reviewing the consent and acknowledgment form, please complete the following:

1. Mail a completed and signed original of the form to:
TS Nelson, Reflections from Women, P.O. Box 136, Oxford, OH 45056.
2. Send a copy of your essay/poem in e-mail attachment after you mailed your signed consent form. Note, your work will not be reviewed until your signed consent form has been received.
3. Please do not mail a copy of your essay or poem (to save on paper and printing!)
4. If you are submitting your work for consideration in the writing contest, please indicate "writing contest" on the top of the cover page of your submission.
5. If you have further questions, you may contact me at tsnelson@ReflectionsFromWomen.com.

Thank you for allowing us to consider your work for the Reflections from Women series. I am looking forward to reading your essay or poem!

Terri Spahr Nelson, Editor, Reflections from Women series
